To Whom It May Concern;

Ravi Jakhotia has worked as a percussionist at Playboy Mansion for over three years. During this period of time we have employed Ravi for 12 large events. He has worked with four disc jockeys. Ravi has worked with, accompanied, and enhanced each of the disc jockeys very successfully. He has fulfilled Playboy Mansion's need to offer its guests more than just a fabulous disc jockey.

Over the 3 years, I have worked with Ravi, he has been dependable, flexible and responsive.

I recommend Ravi with the utmost confidence knowing his professionalism, pride and enthusiasm make it impossible for him to do anything less then enhance the overall entertainment value of any person or group he accompanies.

Sincerely;

John E. Luther
